

BUFFALO RACEWAY
MARCH MAYHEM
RULES

When you enter clubhouse on March 1, 8 and 11, you may complete an entry form and deposit it at promotions table. Entries close at Aqueduct Race 3 (March 1); and Buffalo Raceway Race 3 (March 8 and 11).

There will be one entry form per person per day. If you received an entry form on a previous day (s), it will not be necessary for you to complete an additional form. Simply come up to the table. Your previous entry will be on file.

On each of the designated days, you will pick a number out of the bin that will correspond to a team expected to compete in the NCAA March Tournament. That team will be listed on your entry form. If you attend the races on all three days, you will be eligible to have three (3) different teams to cheer for. You will also receive $10 match play just for playing.

If one of your teams wins the tournament, you will spin the wheel to win up to $100 in free wagers on the eighth race at Buffalo Raceway on April 8, 2023. If one of your teams loses the final game in the tournament, you will spin the wheel to win up to $50 in free wagers on the seventh race at Buffalo Raceway on April 8, 2023.

Have fun!
